Hey Meg! I heard you took Step 2 CS* already. Is it as easy as they say? What should I do to prepare?

It was pretty awful, but if you learn from my experience it should be a piece of cake!

*medical licensing exam taken after year 3 of medical school, involves role-playing with "patients" (actors). Widely regarded as a "joke" exam.

I'm sure you know to use common sense and basic etiquette...

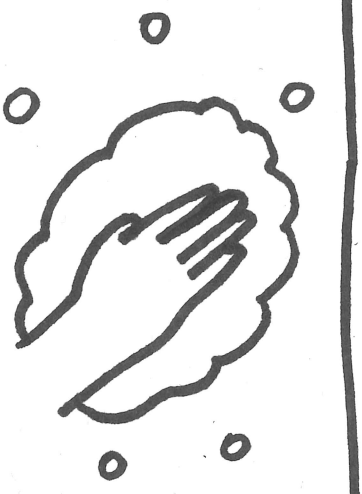
Remember your introductions and empathy,

Hi. I'm Dr. Megan

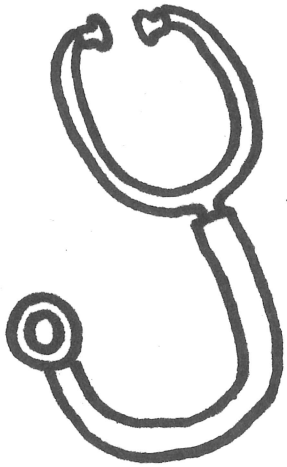
This fake abdominal pain is killing me!

I'm sorry you're feeling that way.

Wash your hands,



and don't forget your stethescope!



It's also a good idea to research parking in Philadelphia...

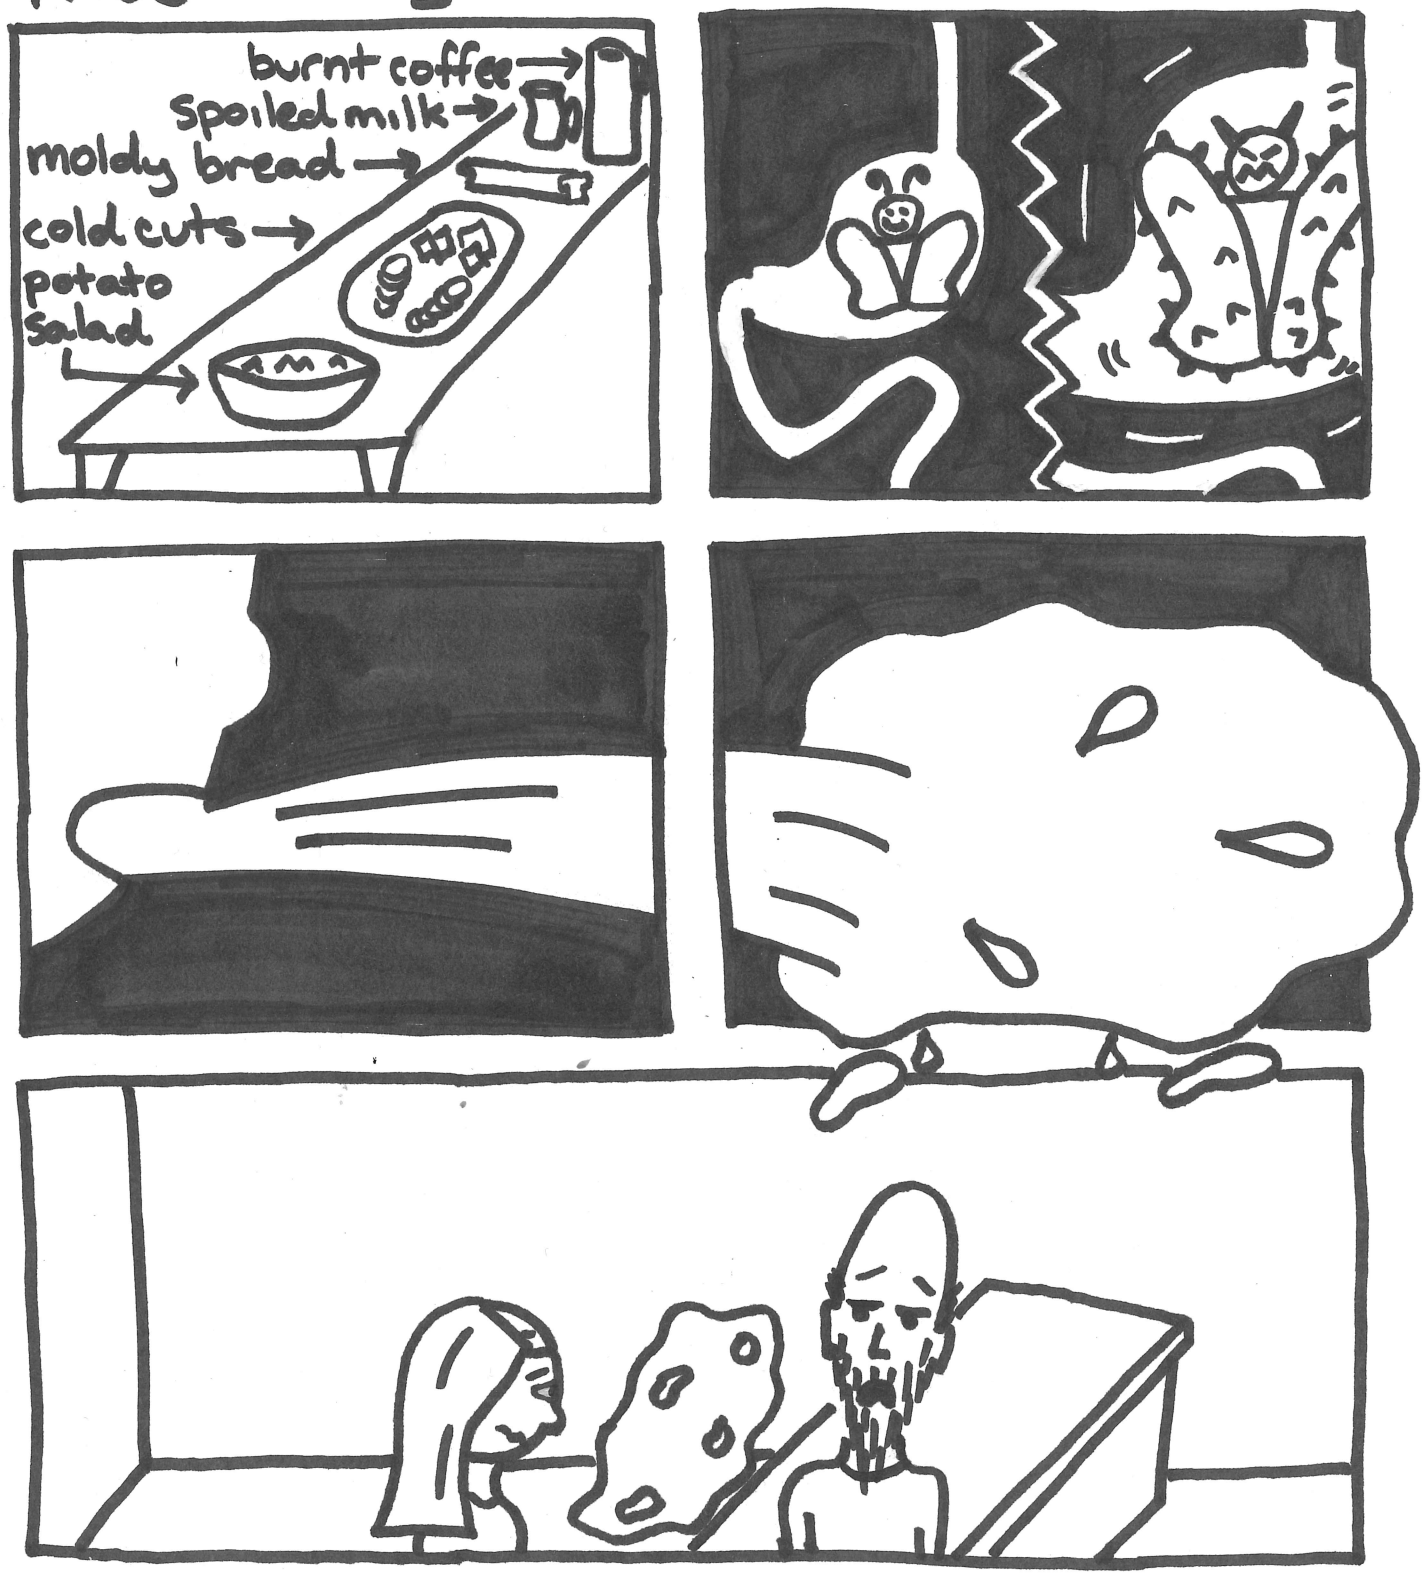
My way:

X@$!*!

Alternative:

Lunch is provided, but you might want to pack your own...

True Story:



Have faith in your rudimentary doctoring abilities...
I'm gonna fail.
Might as well apply now.
