CALL FOR PROPOSALS:

M.G. Whiting
Indigenous Knowledge Research Awards

Open to all full-time Penn State undergraduate and graduate students at any Penn State campus, including World Campus.

Up to maximum amount of $2,000 per project will be awarded.

Application deadline: Friday, March 3, 2017

Indigenous Knowledge: An emerging area of study that focuses on the ways of knowing, seeing, and thinking passed down orally from generation to generation.

Funded by the Marjorie Grant Whiting Endowment for the Advancement of Indigenous Knowledge and supported by Penn State’s University Libraries and the Interinstitutional Center for Indigenous Knowledge (ICIK). For more information, contact Mark Mattson, mam1196@psu.edu/814-863-2480 or Amy Paster, alp4@psu.edu/814-865-3708.

More details at tinyurl.com/whitingaward

Available in alternative media on request. U.Ed. LIB 17-121