

The College of Health and Human Development and the Center for Healthy Aging invite you to

Careers in Aging Week

April 6 – 12, 2014

Bright Future, Many Possibilities: Be ready for your career

Tuesday, April 8, 4:15-6:15 PM
Ruth Pike Auditorium, 022 Biobehavioral Health Building

Learn how our aging population is impacting every sector of our lives and the demand for aging professionals.

Faculty Panel

BBH – Roger McCarter, Professor of Biobehavioral Health
CSD – Judy Creuz, Instructor, Clinic Coordinator, Connie Kossan, Instructor, Clinic Supervisor
HPA – Mark Sciegaj, Associate Professor and Associate Director of Smart Spaces Center
HDFS – Martin Sliwinski, Professor and Director of Center for Healthy Aging
HM – Bart Bartlett, Associate Professor and Professor-In-Charge Undergraduate Program
KINES – Lacy Alexander, Assistant Professor of Kinesiology
NUTR – Gordon Jensen, Professor and Department Head of Nutritional Sciences
RPTM – John Dattilo, Professor of Recreation, Park, and Tourism Management
Donald H. Ford, Dean Emeritus, Founding Dean of the College of Health and Human Development

Aging Career Discussion Panel

Thursday, April 10, 4:15-6:15 PM
Ruth Pike Auditorium, 022 Biobehavioral Health Building

Learn about jobs and careers in the aging field. Meet the professionals!

Professional Panel

Anne Campbell, Independent Living and Personal Care Administrator, Brookline Village
Deb Soltis, Owner, Soltis Senior Care Connections
Ken Stuck, Realtor, Gambone, Songer & Associates
Michelle Gorin, RN, Director of Nursing, The Village at Penn State
Sandy Schuckers, Administrative Officer, PrimeTime Health Coordinator, CentreCounty Office of Aging
Sarah Ayers-Cook, Social Services Supervisor, Foxdale Village
Vince Romanini, Community Director / Owner, Wynwood House at Penns Valley Personal Care Home

All students welcome!