FOUNDERS OF THE Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) AT PENN STATE YORK

Through the efforts of three like-minded women (clockwise from left, Charmaine Kissinger, Olive Padden and the late Gussie Petron) and a number of other volunteers, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) initiated an association with Penn State York. In 2007, a nonprofit, all volunteer-driven organization was established to enrich the lives of mature adults living in York County by providing a variety of educational and social activities. Classes began in April 2008.

HOW DOES OLLI AT PENN STATE YORK WORK?

OLLI at Penn State York is a membership organization. Members may participate in any of the OLLI activities, which include courses and special events. OLLI activities usually take place during the day. While most of the classes take place on the Penn State York campus, trips outside the classroom are scheduled to enhance our members’ search of never-ending learning experiences. Individuals acknowledge and assume any and all risk associated with participation in OLLI activities. OLLI makes no representation regarding the appropriateness of any activity for an individual. OLLI disclaims any and all liability for each individual’s participation in said activities. If a program involves physical activity, participants are responsible for wearing the proper attire and using the proper equipment (if applicable). It is highly recommended that participants consult their physician before participating in physical activity. OLLI disclaims any and all liability for each individual’s participation in any program that involves physical activity. Penn State York serves only as the site for OLLI and therefore disclaims any and all responsibility for any OLLI programs.

REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Prior registration is required for all classes. There will be no walk-ins. This will enable us to schedule the room (size) and tell the presenter how many students to prepare for if they have handouts. This could also prevent cancellations due to low enrollment.

IF YOU ARE UNABLE TO ATTEND A COURSE

Refunds will be in the form of credit only, no cash. Credit will be given only if you call the office at least one week before the start of the course. Call the OLLI office at 717-771-4015 to receive credit or if you have further questions. Because OLLI is obligated to pay the full price for transportation we will make the following cancellation policy effective on listed trips. No refunds or credits will be given for withdrawing a trip registration without at least one month’s notice before the date of the trip.

WHAT ARE THE FEES FOR OLLI AT PENN STATE YORK?

Because OLLI at Penn State York is largely volunteer-run, the fees are kept low. Membership dues are $50 per year and are required for most courses. OLLI members’ course and event fees vary according to the number of sessions, cost of course materials, and sometimes due to admission ticket prices. Single-session courses are $7 for members ($15 for nonmembers). Multi-session courses are $7 per session for members only. Bus trips cost from $60 to $100. If you are not an OLLI member, please review the course description to see if the specific course you are interested in is offered to nonmembers. Nonmembers may only register to take up to three single-session courses per semester.

HOW CAN I JOIN OLLI AT PENN STATE YORK?

Simply fill out the membership form inside this brochure, mail it to Penn State York with your payment, and begin OLLI activities at any time. For more information, contact OLLI at 717-771-4015 or email olli@yk.psu.edu.

Spring 2016 Course Registration Deadline:
Friday, February 26, 2016
REGISTER EARLY — Popular classes fill up quickly.
Dear OLLI members and friends,

It has been four months, as I write this, since I became Director of OLLI at Penn State York. I’ve enjoyed getting to know some of you, and I’ve certainly come to appreciate just how special OLLI at Penn State York is! One very memorable experience was attending the OLLI National Conference in October, and getting to meet Bernard Osher, whose vision and generosity has made the nationwide network of OLLIs possible. Mr. Osher is very much involved with the OLLIs, and is pleased that we are now officially part of Penn State.

This is the time of year when many flora and fauna are in hibernation; but not OLLI members. Curiosity not only doesn’t retire, it doesn’t hibernate! Flip through the pages of this catalog, and you’ll see how active you can be.

Our curriculum committee has assembled some wonderful offerings, and I know there is something for everyone.

In addition to compelling courses, you’ll find opportunities to gather socially, to visit some interesting places, to share special interests, and, simply, to have fun!

So, peruse the catalog, identify those offerings that interest you, and register. Remember, registering early, and online, is the best way to ensure you get the courses you want. If you prefer, however, you can still mail in your registration, or register in the OLLI office.

We look forward to welcoming our members back for the spring session, and if you are new to OLLI, we extend a special welcome. As our friends “across the pond” might say, “Keep Calm, and Keep Learning.”

Best regards,

Peg Chown
YORK COUNTY DURING THE CIVIL WAR YEARS — REPEAT

Come join multiple award-winning author Scott Mingus as he discusses the politics of York County during the Civil War years, with a strong focus on reactions to Lincoln’s war policies, and how various townships and areas within the county voted (and why). Mingus will also talk about Lincoln’s planned and realized visits to York County and his interaction with local businessmen, politicians, and citizens. Special focus will be on Lincoln’s trip through Hanover Junction in November, 1863.

HOW HAPPINESS THINKS

Since the dawn of time, mankind has been fascinated by the workings of the human brain. Only recently have scientists been discovering the underlying dynamics that shape and influence our frame of mind. With these discoveries have come new ways to cope with anxiety and stress; steps that we can take to crystallize our self-concept, and practical tools we can use to build the resilience and grit to ride through any challenge life throws our way. Surprisingly, ancient Jewish texts have, for centuries, advocated various approaches to achieving happiness; ideas that are only now being confirmed through scientific observations. This course, How Happiness Thinks, offers a roadmap to happier living. Every lesson contains poignant insights into how our minds operate, with practical steps we can take to boost our happiness.

Dates: Mondays, March 14, 21, 28; April 4 (four-session course)
Time: 9:00–10:30 a.m.
Place: CC
Fee: $28, members only

Rabbi Elazar Green is director of the Lancaster and York chapter of the Jewish Learning Institute and is a frequent lecturer and distinguished expert on Jewish literature.

GEOLOGY OF OUR HOME LANDSCAPE
Through a total of five themed PowerPoint presentations and a final test (a fun trivia game with prizes), you will learn about how our landscape was formed over millions of years. The presentations will also include how our local history has been influenced by the geology of the area. This will be the most interesting “down to earth” class you have ever attended!

Dates: Mondays, March 14, 21 and 28 (three-session course)
Time: 11:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m.
Place: CC
Fee: $21, members only

Jeri Jones has studied geology for more than thirty years and has written several books and produced an educational video series about geology.

MULTIPLE INTELLIGENCES THEORY AND YOU
Dr. Howard Gardner, and his theory of Multiple Intelligences, has added to the discussion about what it means to be smart. He believes that there are many intelligences and that the ones measured on traditional IQ tests are only two of them. This session will explain Gardner’s theory and will provide an opportunity for participants to explore their own strengths and weaknesses in the context of his approach.

Date: Monday, March 14 (single-session course)
Time: 12:45–2:15 p.m.
Place: CC
Fee: $7 members/$15 nonmembers

THE PHILOSOPHY OF THOMAS JEFFERSON
Thomas Jefferson was president of the United States, governor, ambassador, secretary of state, author of the Declaration of Independence, farmer, scientist, inventor, architect - and PHILOSOPHER. Unlike most philosophers, Jefferson wrote only one book - a natural history of Virginia. However, from the more than 20,000 letters he wrote, one can discern his philosophical beliefs on God, Jesus and religion, nature, scientific materialism, utilitarianism, knowledge and education, epicurean happiness, altruism, progress, and the aesthetics of architecture. Regarded as the most intellectual of American presidents, Thomas Jefferson was a philosopher and should be investigated philosophically.

MARIE-LOUISE OSMONT
In the United States, we know little about the World War II Nazi occupation of France. Imagine German officers in your house demanding your entire property for their headquarters! That is what happened on August 6, 1940, when the widow, Marie-Louise Osmont, opened her door. The Germans stayed three years! Her diary details their daily drills, troop arrivals, departures, supplies, behavior, and above all her determination to remain in her house. Mikele Garfield Stillman will portray Marie-Louise Osmont as she speaks from the text of her diary about the German occupation of Normandy.

THE GOLDEN AGE OF PIRACY

Robert Lehr will focus on the late 1600s and early 1700s, when piracy was encouraged, and then, discouraged. He will explain how piracy evolved: the rules, the skills, the ships used, some biographies of individuals, and the efforts to end piracy, as well as positive influences of piracy. Lehr will also clear up some of the misconceptions caused by big-screen and authors’ distortions about pirates.

Date: Tuesday, May 10 (single-session course)
Time: 9:00–10:30 a.m.
Place: CC
Fee: $7 members/$15 nonmembers

Robert Lehr is a retired elementary school principal who loves history. He has read more than one hundred non-fiction books about piracy.

PENNSYLVANIA SONG BIRDS

If you’re going to be a writer, the best way to begin is writing about what you know. The same holds true for bird watching. Before you can identify birds that show up unexpectedly in weird places, you should get to know your neighbors — the birds in your backyard or neighborhood park. Some of them are pretty amazing in their own right! Come join Karen Lippy as she looks at our local birds, and learn the secrets of their lives and their habits. This course will include two field trips to observe the birds on Thursdays, May 19 and 26; times will be decided in class.

Dates: Tuesdays, May 17 and 24 (two-session course)
Time: 11:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m.
Place: CC
Fee: $14, members only

INTERGENERATIONAL OPPORTUNITY AT YORK COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA

Last spring many OLLI members participated in an opportunity with a gerontology class at York College of Pennsylvania. This proved to be a most enjoyable experience for all participants. Dr. Mary Ligon has asked us to meet with her new students this spring.

The class assignment is an oral history project on the social aspects of aging. Students learn about the place that older adults hold in society and how life experiences shape a person.

Volunteers will meet with the students for interviews at York College on the following Wednesdays at 3:00 p.m. in 2016:

February 17: Orientation/Meet and Greet
March 9: Interview 1 — Childhood and Youth
March 16: Interview 2 — Early Adulthood
March 23: Interview 3 — Later Adulthood
April 20: Wrap Up — Celebration — Deliver Biography

The students will work in groups of two or three. You will work with the same group each week. They will use a voice recorder. You can share as little or as much information as you like. These interviews are not confidential. The students will use the information you share to write your biography. You will receive copies of your biography on April 30.

This project will count as 50 percent of the students’ grade so they are counting on us to be there. If there is a date you cannot make, alternate interview times can be arranged.

If you participated before you can do so again since these are new students. Anyone interested should call or email the OLLI office with their name and phone number and email address, if you have one. You do not have to be an OLLI member to be part of this group, but you must be more than 65 years old.

There is no cost to be part of this group. I promise you it will be a most enjoyable experience. If you have any questions please call Pat McGrath at 717-757-3485 or email her at patmcgrath1344@outlook.com.

LUTHERY — THE MAKING OF STRINGED INSTRUMENTS

While listening to the stringed instruments in beautiful classical music, have you ever wondered who made those instruments and how difficult it is to produce an instrument that makes such pure tones and beautiful sounds? In this class, Mark Bluett will show you how it is done. He will explain the steps and materials needed to construct a violin.

Date: Wednesday, March 9
Time: 2:00–3:30 p.m.
Place: Bluett Bros. Violins at 122 Hill Street in York.
Fee: $7 members/$15 nonmembers

ENTREPRENEURSHIP — CHANGING FACE OF DOWNTOWN YORK

I-Ron-Ic Eclectic Gallery, located at 256 West Philadelphia Street in York, incubates local artists by allowing them to display the types of art that inspires them. This art is marketed in a gallery and retail environment. The organization is an active part of the neighborhood known as West of Codorus (WECO) and is expanding. The goal is to impact neighborhoods through involvement and getting others inspired. Come and witness the works of more than sixty-five local artists, enjoy their creativity, and learn how this gallery is making York a better place for artists and art lovers. Steve Billet will be your guide.

CONSIDER THE CONVERSATION

If you were seriously ill and unable to speak for yourself, would your family and health care team know what kind of care you would want? Regardless of your age or health condition, it is important to discuss your choices and preferences with family, faith leaders, and health care providers before you experience a health crisis. This program will begin with a film that examines end-of-life conversations and care. Following the film, a panel of local experts will provide additional insights and offer the opportunity for questions and answers. All participants will receive a reference packet with helpful information to start the conversation. This program is provided by Your Life — Your Wishes Community Task Force, an initiative of the Healthy York County Coalition.

Date: Friday, March 25
Time: 10:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

OLLI at Penn State York

Is Proud to Welcome

Maestro Lawrence Golan

Lawrence Golan, who is the Music Director and Conductor for the York Symphony Orchestra, will be offering five special one-day courses featuring an in-depth presentation and discussion of the music he will be conducting at the symphony. Those of you who attended his classes last spring and this past fall were overwhelmingly appreciative of his sessions.

The fee for these classes includes a $9.00 voucher for a ticket to the concert on the next day at the Strand-Capitol Performing Arts Center, 50 North George Street, York, PA.

The fee for OLLI members is $16.00 and for nonmembers $24.00 for each class. If you have already purchased your season ticket for the York Symphony, you may register for the class for $7.00 for OLLI members and $15.00 for nonmembers.

Classes will be at Penn State York at 12:30–2:00 p.m.

Friday, January 22, 2016 – Shakespeare’s The Tempest set to music; Three different takes (the concert will be Saturday, January 23 at 7:30 p.m.)

Friday, February 12, 2016 – Beethoven in Buenos Aires: The Pastoral Symphony and The Four Seasons of Buenos Aires by Piazzolla (the concert will be Saturday, February 13 at 7:30 p.m.)

Friday, April 1, 2016 – Lullaby of Birdland: Birds set to music (the concert will be Saturday, April 2 at 7:30 p.m.)

Friday, April 29, 2016 – Mozart’s Comic Opera Cosi fan tutte (Women are like that) (The concert will be Saturday, April 30 at 7:30 p.m.)
*Fee for the opera will be $36 for members and $44 for nonmembers.

Friday, May 20, 2016 – Vaughan Williams Sea Symphony (the concert will be Saturday, May 21 at 7:30 p.m.)

Lawrence Golan is the Principal Conductor of the Seoul Philharmonic (seoulphilharmonic.org) in South Korea and Music Director of the Denver Philharmonic Orchestra in Colorado. He continues as Music Director of the Yakima Symphony Orchestra in Washington State and the Lamont Symphony Orchestra & Opera Theatre at the University of Denver.

*With your class confirmation you will receive a voucher for a ticket to the concert. It is your responsibility to call or visit the York Symphony box office to redeem it for a ticket. You may use the voucher to upgrade your ticket, if you wish. The box office phone number is 717-846-1111.
OLLl is reaching out to individuals who may not be able to attend offerings during their busy days. Rich Santel, our “in-house” movie guru, will be showing, and then discussing, four movies in the evening this spring. Movies will be shown on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 – 9:00 p.m., every-other-week, beginning March 16th, through April 27th. Additionally, we’re offering a “pick your package” pricing approach. There are four movies. You can sign up for all four, or you can sign up for one, two or three; you decide. Just know that there will be no refunds, and no credit offered if you miss any of the movies for which you sign up.

WAIT LIST
We often have wait lists for some classes.
If you find you cannot attend a class for which you are registered, please call and let us know so we may add someone from the wait list.

Thank you.

INVITE A FRIEND
Nonmembers may take up to three one-session courses in a semester.
MOGULS AND MOVIE STARS: THE HISTORY OF HOLLYWOOD

This class will trace the history of Hollywood film, from the medium’s invention in the 19th century to the birth of the New Hollywood in 1970. Turner Classic Movie Channel’s Emmy nominated mini-series on this subject will be the basis for discussion.

There are seven episodes. You may register for one or more of them.

Episode 1: Peepshow Pioneers (1889–1907) Thomas Edison, the Lumiere brothers, and immigrants, form the basis of the moviemaking business. Tuesday, June 7, 2016

Episode 2: The Birth of Hollywood (1907–1920) Moviemakers in Los Angeles, such as Jesse Lacky, Samuel Goldwyn, Cecil B. DeMille, Mack Sennett and Charlie Chaplin, captivate audiences with silent movies. Tuesday, June 14, 2016

Episode 3: The Dream Merchants (1920–1928) The studio system is created to establish control over all aspects of the movie business, from production through theater ownership. Tuesday, June 21, 2016

Episode 4: Brother Can You Spare a Dream? (1929–1941) While a major economic depression casts a grim shadow across America, movies become talkies and manage to survive. Tuesday, June 28, 2016

Episode 5: Warriors and Peacemakers (1941–1950) As the world goes to war, Hollywood joins the war effort providing information, propaganda, entertainment and moviemaking expertise. Tuesday, July 12, 2016

Episode 6: The Attack of the Small Screens (1950–1960) Prosperity and television come to America and change the popularity of Hollywood movies, while talent agencies begin to give more power to movie stars. Tuesday, July 19, 2016

Place: CC
Time: 9:30 a.m.
Dates: See each episode for dates
Fee: $5.00 per session OR $30 for all seven sessions (a savings of $5.00)

Facilitators: Rich Santel, OLLI’s own “movie guy” and Pat McGrath, self-described “movieholic”

The Following Activities are Offered of Charge*

SUMMER INTERIM MOVIES

The following films will be shown on Mondays, from 2:00–4:30 p.m.in room 31BC in the Conference Center in the Main Classroom Building at Penn State York. Optional dinner on your own at a local restaurant will follow each movie.

Monday, June 6 — Tootsie (1982) — An unemployed actor with a reputation for being difficult disguises himself as a woman to get a role in a soap opera.

Monday, June 20 — The Clock (1945) — Soldier Joe Allen is on a two-day leave in New York, and there he meets Alice. In this short time they find themselves falling in love with each other, and they decide to get married before Joe has to return to camp.

Monday, July 11 — Chocolat (2000) — A woman and her daughter open a chocolate shop in a small French village that shakes up the rigid morality of the community.

Monday, August 8 — Letter from an Unknown Woman (1948) — A pianist about to flee from a duel receives a letter from a woman he cannot remember, who may hold the key to his downfall.

Monday, August 15 — Big Hand for a Little Lady (1966) — A comedy western in which a traveler bets more money than he can afford in a poker game, and unusual events follow.

SUMMER INTERIM BOOK DISCUSSION
Book discussions will meet at 11:30 a.m. in Room 31BC in the Conference Center in the Main Classroom Building at Penn State York

Tuesday, June 14, 2016 — Destiny of the Republic: A Tale of Madness, Medicine and the Murder of a President by Candace Millard — President James A. Garfield was shot after only four weeks in office. This nonfiction book tells his story as well as that of his assassin and the team of physicians who treated him. We’ll also learn about the struggle for power in our government that went on in the background.

Tuesday, July 12, 2016 — The Art of Fielding by Chad Harbach — This novel is filled with the tenderness of youth; an expansive, warmhearted tale about ambition and its limits, about family and friendship and love, and about commitment to oneself and to others.

Tuesday, August 9, 2016 — Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress by Dai Sijie translated by Ina Rilke — Two hapless city boys are exiled for reeducation during China’s infamous Cultural Revolution. They discover the magic of reading and the wonder of romantic awakening when they secretly devour banned Western classics.

ROCKY RIDGE TREK WITH CARL FEHRENBACK
Please join us on June 15th for a walk and brown bag picnic at Rocky Ridge Park. OLLI member Carl Fehrenbach has created maps of hiking trails around the county using his GPS, so he will lead us on one of the hikes he has mapped out, and he guarantees that the route will be easy.

Meet at the Hidden Laurel lot, first on the left as you enter the park, at 10:00 a.m. If you would like to carpool, please let us know by calling the OLLI office at 771-4015. We’ll send maps closer to the time of the event. In addition to your packed lunch, please fill your favorite water bottle, bring a walking stick and binoculars if you have them, and wear walking shoes. If the weather is bad, we’ll cancel that morning via email/phone and set another date.

Date: Wednesday, June 15, 2016
Time: 10:00 a.m.–??
Place: Hidden Laurel lot at Rocky Ridge Park, (yorkcountypa.gov/parks-recreation/the-parks/rocky-ridge.html) for directions.

If you register for a course or an event that involves physical activity, you are responsible for wearing the proper attire and using the proper equipment (if applicable). It is highly recommended you consult your physician before participating in any physical activity.

GENUINE AMISH FARMHOUSE MEAL
The King family of Manheim are known for the Amish meals they prepare for “English” and international visitors to their farm. A number of you have requested this trip, so your wish is our command! The event is scheduled for Saturday, July 16th, at noon. Meals are served family-style, with treats prepared traditionally. To respect Amish ways as much as possible, let’s all try to carpool. Meet at Penn State York’s lower parking lot at Albemarle Street and Springdale Avenue at 10:30. Also in keeping with Amish tradition, you will be allowed to use cell phones only in the barn when we look around the farm. Maps will be provided for each car.

Date: Saturday, July 16, 2016
Time: 10:30–??
Place: Meet in the lower parking lot of Penn State York at Albemarle Street and Springdale Avenue

*Fee: No course fee, but contributions may be “paid” upon arrival (bus trips typically pay $17–$18 per person).

LANCASTER’S NORTH MUSEUM — INTERGENERATIONAL OPPORTUNITY
Now that the North Museum has been renovated, there’s even more reason to pay this wonderful small museum a visit. Focused on nature and science, this gem fascinates all ages and is often a school trip for Lancaster County children. If you haven’t been there and are a curious sort, and/or have a young friend or relative who is also fascinated by nature and science, take this opportunity to scope it out — bring your young person(s) if you wish. Parking is available on the street near the museum, so carpooling would be good. Let’s meet at the Penn State York lower parking lot at 9:00 a.m. to carpool and get directions. Lunch will follow the tour.
Date: Wednesday, August 3, 2016
Time: 9:00 a.m.–??
Place: Meet in the lower parking lot of Penn State York at Albemarle Street and Springdale Avenue
*Fee: No course fee, but there is an $8 entrance fee for seniors and children, payable at the door.

“BAG LUNCH MOVIE”
Remember taking your lunch to school and eating in the cafeteria with your friends? Perhaps it was the girls at one table and the boys at another. Well, let’s go back in time and do it again!

“The Big Country” was directed by William Wyler and stars Gregory Peck, Jean Simmons, Carroll Baker, Charlton Heston, and Burl Ives; with a supporting cast including Charles Bickford and Chuck Connors.

Class begins at 10:30AM, with lunch from 12:00 noon until 12:30p.m. School is out at 2:00p.m., leaving plenty of time to play with your friends, do your homework, or help Mom with supper. (Remember ... ?)

So mark your calendars and join us for the “Bag Lunch Movie.” See you there!

Date: Tuesday, August 23, 2016
Time: 10:30 a.m.–2:00 p.m.
Place: CC

Rich Santel has been facilitating a classic movie group for OLLI since spring of 2012.
