

El Salvador

Lost Archives of the Conflict

El Salvador: Lost Archives of the Conflict is a documentary feature that tells the story of the armed conflict during the 1980s in El Salvador. Thirty years after the halt of the conflict, its protagonists share their living memories and lend depth to our understanding of the history.

Followed by Q&A with Director Gerardo Muyshondt and Producer Sergio Rodriguez Avila (PSU '11). Moderated by Catherine Wanner, Professor of History.

Wednesday March 16, 2:00 p.m.

State Theatre

Admission is free with Student or Faculty ID