Think you are pretty smart?

Come out to Trivia Night held in celebration of Engineers Week to test your knowledge. Food and drink will be provided, prizes will be awarded to the top teams, and participating is free.

The event will be held on University Park campus on Wednesday, February 25, 7pm - 9pm, Robb Hall in Hintz Alumni Center. Team Trivia will be hosting the event!

- You do not have to be an engineer to participate.
- Maximum of five people per team.
- Your team may include faculty, staff, or undergraduate and graduate students from various departments.
- If you do not register a full team of 5 people, additional single participants may be added to fill your team the day of the event.
- If you are registering as a single participant, you will be assigned a team upon your arrival to the event.
- The trivia questions will not be all engineering related.

Engineering's Got Talent 2015 Walk-In Audition
