
PENN STATE SPRING INVITATIONAL 2018

SENIOR CELEBRATION

FEBRUARY 3, 2018
PENN STATE CLUB SWIM
McCoy Natatorium

ERIKA DANIEL

Years on the team: 4

Degree: Bachelor's in Labor Employment Relations, minor in Business

Post Grad Plans: I am still actively searching for full-time jobs related to HR and business. My goal is to work near a big city!

Favorite Event: 100 fly

Favorite Memory: Being roommates with Lauren, Maddie and Kelly at Nationals 2017

Bequeathals: I would like to transfer my role as "team Mom" to Jill DeMaio

Advice for the rest of us: "Enjoy every moment of college. Work hard, have fun, make lasting friendships, sleep while you can. Time flies."

LAUREN DECRESCENTE, President

Years on the team: 4

Degree: Supply Chain Management

Post Grad Plans: Still figuring life out, but will be wishing to be back at State all the time.

Favorite Event: 50 free and 200 free relay

Favorite Memory: It's too hard to pick just one! Each year has been filled with so many great memories! I do love the bus rides to and from Atlanta for Club Swim Nationals... there's always some amazing adventures that go along with them.

Bequeathals: Love of Gaff Thursdays to Keenan Zambelli (when 21 of course); Vine reference knowledge to Maddie and Asher; Stressing out over literally everything to Jen Davis

Advice for the rest of us: "Enjoy every second, it'll be over before you know it. Cherish your club swim family, the memories will stay with you forever."

KELLY ECKERD, Coach

Years on the team: 4

Degree: Bachelor's in Accounting

Post Grad Plans: Moving to NYC for a summer internship with PricewaterhouseCoopers, then pursuing a Master's degree at either PSU or Villanova in order to obtain CPA licensure

Favorite Event: 200 free

Favorite Memory: Everything about Nationals! From the 13 hour bus rides to sending ugly snapchat of one another to the electric meet atmosphere.

Bequeathals: The art of taking ugly snap selfies to everyone, but especially Noelle and Joe.

Advice for the rest of us: "Cherish every single moment you have at Penn State!!!!"

STALIN GALARZA

Years on the team: 2.5

Degree: Civil Engineering

Post Grad Plans: Travel during the summer, going back to Ecuador, and eventually find a job

Favorite Event: 200 free

Favorite Memory: The Christmas socials were always epic

Bequeathals: a gift to Maddie (it was an Ecuador shirt!!)

Advice for the rest of us: "Get involved, try out as many clubs as you can. Feel no obligation to them if you don't like them. College is about finding out what you love to do."

JARRETT GULAKOWSKI

Years on the team: 2

Degree: Bachelor in Geography with Marine Sciences minor

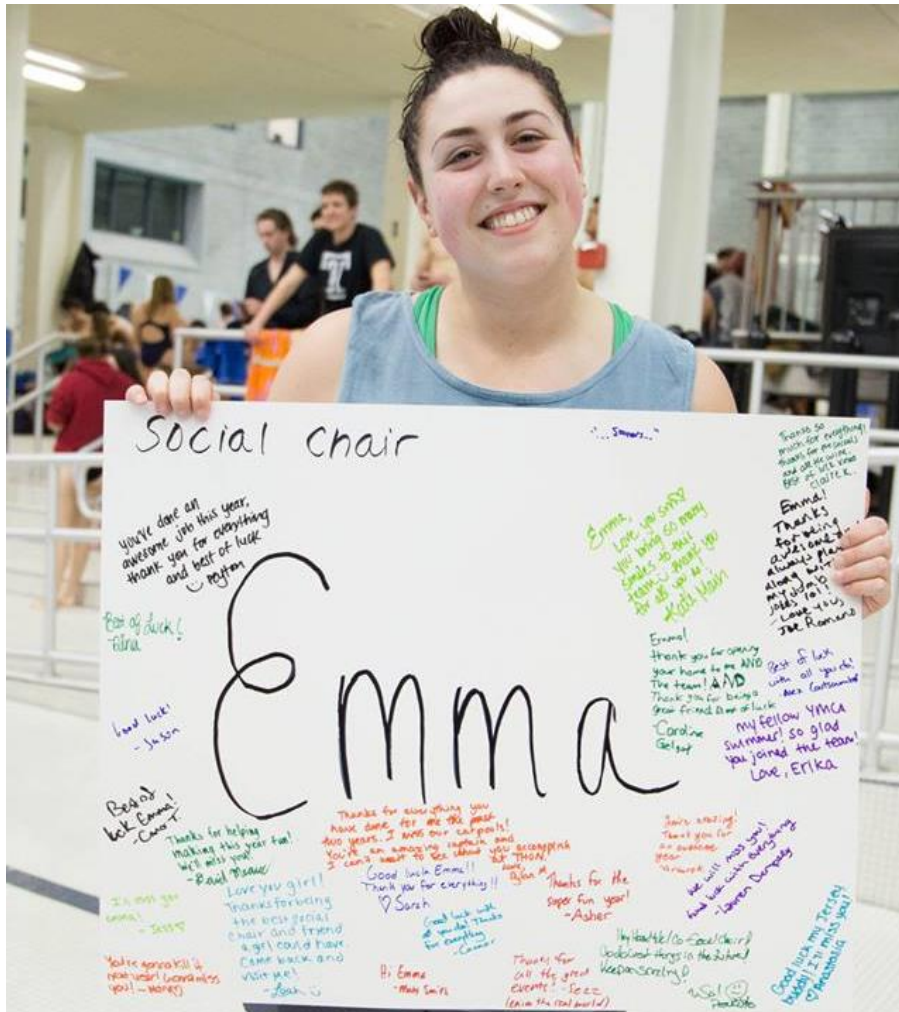

Post Grad Plans: Go into oceanic conservation or end up becoming a musician... whichever comes first

Favorite Event: 50 fly

Favorite Memory: Nationals 2017

Bequeathals: The legacy of "hey Jesus is here!"

Advice for the rest of us: "Always make it a point to socialize and make team events a part of your life, you WILL end up meeting people who you will call family for the rest of your life."

EMMA KOHLENSTEIN, Social Chair

Years on the team: 2

Degree: BS in Hospitality Management

Post Grad Plans: Working for Hershey Entertainment & Resorts

Favorite Event: 50 breast

Favorite Memory: Girls nights 😊

Advice for the rest of us: "You will meet your best friends on this team, stay involved as much as you can!!"

CHRISTINE SIBLEY

Years on the team: 4

Degree: Bachelor in Public Relations

Post Grad Plans: Not sure 😊

Favorite Event: 50 free

Favorite Memory: Meeting my freshmen blondes, Erika and Lauren

Advice for the rest of us: “Enjoy it even if your glory days are over!”

CONOR TUNNO

Years on the team: 4

Degree: Real Estate Risk Management

Post Grad Plans: Commercial Real Estate Brokerage in the suburbs of Philly

Favorite Event: 50 fly

Favorite Memory: Superlatives on the bus ride home from Nationals freshmen year

Bequeathals: A snickers bar to Joseph Romano

Advice for the rest of us: "Don't put all your time and energy into one thing in college or in life. Experience the world and what it has to offer."
