

A Well Attended Reception.

In the finely appointed rooms of the J. D. Hick's club, Phoenix block, on Saturday evening last, the attendance was very large, the object being the reception given by the club to Alderman-elect J. B. Raymond. President George Bates, presided, and introduced Mr. Raymond to those present. A number of addresses were made, among the speakers being Hon. J. D. Hicks, J. K. Patterson, esq, J. B. Raymond, John W. Blake, John B. Harnden, Samuel Alloway and Martin L. McCartney.
