

The caucus of the republicans of the Seventh ward, which was called to order last evening in Earlenbaugh's hall, ended in a red hot discussion over the advisability of endorsing a local man for school director. On the final vote it was decreed that the delegates to the city convention put in nomination and work for the nomination of Rev Alden Hutchinson, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, as school director, and Messrs. Long, Raymond and T. C. Burns were appointed a committee to notify Rev. Hutchinson of the caucus' endorsement.

The routine business was as follows: Meeting called to order by Mr. C. W. Emigh. Mr. Michael Stover was elected permanent president and Mr. A. B. George secretary. The following gentlemen were then declared the republican nominees for the various offices to be filled: For common council, Messrs. C. W. Emigh and Howard Manley; judge of elections, Michael Stover; inspector of elections, T. C. Burns; delegates to city convention, J. B. Raymond, esq, Newton Cunningham, H. Beard and Charles Springer; members of the city executive committee, Messrs. A. B. Long and S. C. Tipton.
