A VISIT TO McKINLEY.

Senator Penrose and Congressman Bingham, of Philadelphia, called at the White House to-day and had a talk with President McKinley about several Pennsylvania matters in which they are interested. Senators Penrose and Quay have withdrawn the application of J. B. Raymond, of Altoona, for a Consulship at Hayti, and have entered his name for Deputy Auditorship or some equally good place at home. Raymond is one of the brightest colored Republicans in Pennsylvania. He is an Alderman at Altoona, and was a delegate to the St. Louis convention.

State Senator E. B. Hardenbergh.
