

4-1-44

Dear Mr. Eiche,

I have time tonight for letter writing so I thought I'd drop you a few lines.

I'm now "somewhere in Italy" & things are going pretty good but I can't tell you much.

I found Beverly Leveins name in a State book at the American Read Across but I can't locate him without his address, so I was wondering if you could send it to me.

I heard from Lloyd & he's doing okay. He's a swell guy & I hope he gets the breaks.

I had a letter from "Tootie" & she said Louise was taking a course at night school – I don't believe they can stay away from the school.

I'm sorry I can't tell you more but I hope I'll be back soon to tell you all about it.

We have a slogan of our own "Win the war in '44, yet be alive in '45" I hope it works

Write when you can & give me all the dope. Please excuse the writing - Best of luck

Eddie

PS. No change in my address
