Jaime Casap
Education Evangelist, Google

Jaime Casap is the Education Evangelist at Google. He evangelizes the power and potential of technology and the web as enabling and supporting tools in pursuit of promoting inquiry-driven, project-based learning models. Working with the Google for Education Team, Jaime collaborates with school systems, educational organizations and leaders focused on building innovation and iteration into our education policies and practices. He speaks on education, technology, innovation and generation Z at events around the world.

In addition to his role at Google, Jaime serves on a number of boards for organizations focused on education, innovation and equity. He is on the Board of Inquiry Schools, Seed Spot NEXT and Mi Familia Vota. He is part of the Phoenix Union School District Team, who created the Phoenix Coding Academy, an inquiry-based high school, designed with computer science as the core language for all students. Jaime is also an adjunct professor at Arizona State University, where he teaches classes on policy, innovation and leadership.

You can follow and reach Jaime on Twitter at @jcasap.
