

Film Screening

DOCUNIGHT IRAN VIA DOCUMENTARIES

The Penn State University Libraries and the Iranian Student Association are co-sponsoring Docunight. Every first Wednesday of every month in 2017, Docunight will screen a documentary about, around, or in Iran, or made by Iranians. Docunight screening will take place across several cities in North America and also here in Foster Auditorium. All films will have English subtitles.

76' 15"

Directed by Seyfollah Samadian

2016 / 76 min

Persian with English Subtitles

Acclaimed photographer Seifollah Samadian, a long-time collaborator with Abbas Kiarostami, turns years of behind-the-scenes footage shot during their close creative partnership into a beautiful, understated and inspiring tribute to this giant of cinema by simply allowing us to watch, without commentary, Kiarostami at work.

Wednesday, July 5, 2017 | 7 p.m.

Foster Auditorium, 102 Paterno Library

PennState
University Libraries

Persons with disabilities for anticipate needing accommodations or who have questions about physical access may contact Lisa White (717-749-6044/acw3@psu.edu) in advance of the program.

This publication is available in alternative media on request. Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status. Nondiscrimination: guru.psu.edu/policies/AD85.html. ©2017 The Pennsylvania State University. Produced by Public Relations and Marketing, University Libraries. U.Ed. LIB 17-333