Knowledge, skills and desire shape the habit of an individual

Why and what of things

Knowledge
Desire
Skills
Habit

How to do things
Want to do things

Internalized principles and patterns of behavior
From Stephen Covey’s ‘The 7 habits of Highly Effective People’
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Policies and procedures Guidelines and manuals</td>
<td>Norms Culture</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Education and training Experience</td>
<td></td>
<td>Attitude Motivation – intrinsic/extrinsic</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Knowledge and skills refer to the skills and knowledge required for the role.
- Desire refers to the individual’s motivation and passion for the work.
- Organization includes corporate division, plants, and units.
- Desire includes yearning, thirst, aspire, love, want to.
- Skills and Knowledge include policies, procedures, guidelines, manuals, norms, culture, education, training, experience, attitude, motivation.
THE ACCIDENT PROTECTION BARRIER

THE IMPORTANT ROLE OF EDUCATION AND TRAINING IN PRESERVING THE SAFETY FEATURES OF THE SAFE MINE DESIGN, OPERATING PROCEDURES AND WORK PROCESSES IN KEEPING THE WORKER SAFE IS EMPHASIZED.
ATTITUDE

ATTITUDE IS A WAY OR METHOD OF DOING THINGS WHICH SHOWS ONE’S NATURE OR TENDENCY

- GOOD ATTITUDE
- RIGHT ATTITUDE
- POSITIVE ATTITUDE
- BAD ATTITUDE
- NEGATIVE ATTITUDE
GREATER THE POSITIVE ATTITUDE
GREATER THE CHANCES OF SUCCESS
CONTINUOUS SAFETY IMPROVEMENT

PLAN

DO

CHECK

ACT