Peace Science Society
-International-

The 53nd
North American Annual Meeting

November 7-9, 2019

Manhattan, Kansas
Hosted by the Kansas State University
The Peace Science Society (International) operates as an objective scientific organization without political, social, financial, or national bias. Its objectives are to foster the exchange of ideas and promote studies on issues of peace and conflict utilizing tools, methods, and theoretical frameworks drawn from the social and natural sciences, law, engineering, and other disciplines and professions. A primary concern of the Society is the improvement of social science theory as it relates to world politics. Membership in the Peace Science Society is open to all individuals.

For more information, please visit our website at: http://sites.psu.edu/pssi/.
The Peace Science Society wishes to thank the following organizations from Kansas State University for hosting our annual meeting:

Future Conferences

Pacific Peace Science Conference

The 5th Pacific International Politics Conference (PIPC) will be held at National University of Singapore in Singapore on 3-4 July 3, 2020. Proposals addressing any aspect of peace and conflict research are welcome. Papers focused on the improvement of social science theory as it relates to international relations are encouraged, particularly but not exclusively quantitative research. Especially encouraged are papers dealing with conflict and peace in the Asia-Pacific region, and/or by researchers based in the region. You need to submit only an abstract at this time. Once your proposal is accepted, you need to submit your paper before your presentation at the PIPC. The deadline for submission is 25 February, 2020. Proposals may be submitted at: sites.google.com/site/pacificpeacescienceconference/

Network of European Peace Scientists

The 2020 Jan Tinbergen Network of European Peace Scientists (NEPS) meeting will be held on June 22-24 at the King’s College, London. The deadline for submission is January 30, 2020. NEPS is an international association for the advancement of peace research and related studies in Europe. The principle criterion of eligibility for membership in NEPS is a mature and deep interest in the field of Peace Research. A member of NEPS receives the emails and the news-letters of the network. Membership is €60 for basic membership and €25 for students. If you would like to become a member, send an email to the NEPS administrator Arzu Kibris at A.Kibris@warwick.ac.uk. For more information, please visit: www.europeanpeacescientists.org
Eurasian Peace Science Conference

The 9th Eurasian Peace Science Conference will be held on 13-14 January, 2020 at the Rumelifeneri Campus of Koc University in Istanbul, Turkey. The conference’s goals are to broaden cooperation and intellectual dialogue amongst Eurasian and Middle Eastern peace science scholars, to encourage the fruitful interaction with the worldwide peace science community, and to bring together the most updated and relevant research on conflict and peace-related topics from throughout the entire world.

All aspects of the peace science discipline are welcome, including in particular: (a) empirical studies of political violence and peaceful resolution; (b) quantitative and formal analyses of conflict and peace processes; (c) peace science methodology and theory; (d) alliances, investment, trade, and conflict; (e) economic and political causes of international and domestic violence, encompassing war, ethnic conflict, terrorism, and criminal activity; (f) contemporary regional conflicts, particularly in Eurasia and the Middle East; (g) security and foreign policy; and (h) conflict analysis, management, and resolution. Please check https://conflictstudies.ku.edu.tr/ for additional information.

Queries can be addressed to hosts Dr. Belgin Şan Akca and Dr. Reşat Bayer through eurasiaps@ku.edu.tr (or eurasiaps@gmail.com).
Awards

Stuart A. Bremer Travel Award
for the Best Graduate Student Paper

The Stuart A. Bremer Travel Award is presented to the author(s) of the best graduate student paper delivered at each year’s Peace Science Society meeting. Papers eligible for consideration include those associated with poster presentations made at the meeting as well as those presented at the meeting’s regular sessions. Co-authored papers may be considered for the award if all of the authors are graduate students at the time of the meeting.

The author(s) of the winning paper receives travel support of $2000 to present the paper at the 2020 meeting of the Network of European Peace Scientists at the King’s College, London. The winner will be selected on the basis of the paper’s potential scientific significance and its contribution to the study of peace science. Nomination must be made by one of the authors of the paper.

For consideration, papers must be sent electronically (and preferably as a PDF file) to Idean Salehyan (idean@unt.edu) by November 18, 2019. The winning paper will be announced in January, 2020.
Awards

Walter Isard Award
for the Best Dissertation in Peace Science

The Walter Isard Award for the Best Dissertation in Peace Science is given every two years. The award honors outstanding contributions to the scientific knowledge of peace and conflict and carries a value of $2000. Competition is open to students of any nationality who successfully defend a doctoral dissertation in any field on the subject of peace science, conflict behavior, international relations, or a related topic. The winner is selected on the basis of the importance and scientific significance of the dissertation with respect to the field of peace science and its contribution to the understanding of international behavior more generally. Any member of the individual’s dissertation committee may nominate dissertations for consideration for the award. An individual may nominate no more than one dissertation per award cycle.

Please send nominations to the Executive Director by email at idean@unt.edu

The deadline for nominations is June 1, 2020. The award will be presented at the Society’s 2020 meeting.
