English 209:
Journal & Magazine Practicum

[offered during the Spring 2017 Semester, T & Rs 3:05-4:20 PM]

Interested in a career in publishing or document/WEB design? Want to put your IST, Business, or Applied Psychology major to “practical” use while still in college? Considering majoring in English or Communications, or in the Humanities or the Arts (either here or at another campus)? Enroll in ENGL 209, a practicum course focusing on publishing original writing--fiction and nonfiction--and visual art created by students, staff, faculty, and alums of PSUGA. You may register for 1 to 6 credit hours, depending on the level of commitment and responsibility you want. The purpose of this course is to publish the campus literary and arts magazine, ABSENCE, and/or another book-length publication in the service of the Mission of the Greater Allegheny campus. For more information and Permission to enroll, contact Dr. Clifford Manlove (manlove@psu.edu).
