

Fall 2023

A message from our president, Pat Weaver...

Welcome, all new and long-standing members of the Penn State University Women’s Club to the beginning of our 99th year.

I have the privilege of announcing that Dr. Neeli Bendapudi, Penn State University President, will help us welcome in the new year at the University Women’s Club Fall Reception on September 5, 2023. I look forward to seeing you at our reception.

Please renew your annual membership in advance of the Fall Reception. The membership form needs to accompany your check for the $40 dues. The form is available here.

I feel fortunate to serve with a dynamite board and work closely with Joanne Bennett, President Elect. We are planning what we hope will be exciting events this year. The interest group leaders are also designing programs for the coming year. We currently have 34 interest groups for you to choose to join; this could be a good year to try a new group.

Scholarships are an important part of the mission of The Penn State University Women’s Club. A portion of your dues supports the annual high school book award. Our endowed Undergraduate and Graduate female scholarships are funded by member donations to our scholarship fund. When renewing your membership, consider writing a separate check made payable to Penn State.

Join us for our annual reception at a new location...

You are invited to kickoff the 2023-24 Penn State University Women's Club year!

The University Women's Club fall kickoff for the 2023/24 year will be held at the Mountain View Country Club, located at 310 Elks Club Road, Boalsburg, PA, on September 5, 2023, 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Come to catch up with old friends, hear from the 2023/24 scholarship recipients, and meet the University Women's Club Honorary President and Penn State University's first woman President, Dr. Neeli Bendapudi. Please note that although (some) Interest Groups will be represented, there will be no sign-ups at this event.

To avoid waiting in line, dues should be paid in advance of this event. There will be an opportunity to pay your dues if you have not done so beforehand.

New members will also have the opportunity to join at this time. UWC Ambassadors stationed at the MEMBERSHIP TABLE will be eager to welcome you and "show you the ropes" to ensure you get the most from this exciting annual opportunity to learn about our Club's many groups and activities!

The entrance to the venue is at the front of the building, and the ballroom is to the left down a small flight of stairs. If you need stair-free access, plan to enter to the left of the main entrance and through the patio doors. If you need assistance, please notify Joanne Bennett.

Our annual Fall Trip is to BEDFORD this year

The Program VPs have been busy working on final details for the Fall trip to Bedford, PA, on Tuesday, October 17, 2023. The cost is $118, which includes admission to the National Coverlet Museum, a tour of the historic Omni Bedford Spring Hotel where we will have lunch, plus transportation, tips and snacks on the bus. There will be time on your own in downtown Bedford to shop and/or take in historic sites.

DEADLINE: Payment must be received by September 12, 2023 but please do not wait! We need 31 registrants before August 17 to make this trip "a go!" For details and the form to make a reservation, click here. If you have questions, contact JoLaine Teyssier.

Shopping/Fundraiser Open House to Benefit University Women's Club Endowed Scholarship Fund

On October 19, 6-9 p.m., there will be a fundraising opportunity to benefit the UWC Endowed Scholarship Fund. The Douglas Albert Gallery at 126 E. College Avenue will open for a private shopping event. 20% of the evening's sales total will be donated to our scholarship fund.

Shop, socialize and enjoy light refreshments and wine in this unique gallery, showcasing an ever-changing collection of paintings, jewelry, hand-blown glass, ceramics, framed and unframed works and furnishings.

Spouses and friends are invited to share in this event! Raising money for our endowed scholarships is one of our club's most important missions.

RSVP to Cathie Kenney by Tuesday, October 10.

Fall Program To Feature Well-Known Penn Stater

Our Fall Program speaker will be Charlene "Char" Morett-Curtiss. Char, a Penn State Women's Field Hockey Coach (retired) and is an Athletic Department Advisor, Hall of Fame member and Olympian.

She will speak about "An Athletic Journey: From the Playground to an Olympic Podium, How Penn State Has Impacted My Life". Details can be found here.

DATE: Wednesday, November 1, 2023

LOCATION: All-Sports Museum auditorium at Beaver Stadium

TIME: 1:30 to 3:00 p.m.

Our Nittany Lion is the best!

Wait! What is this? What is Sparty doing in our newsletter?

Teddy Nicholas and Pat Garthe represented the Penn State University Women's Club at the biennial conference of the Big Ten University Clubs. Held at Michigan State University in early June, the meeting's purpose was to exchange ideas and information among the 16 member organizations. The member universities take turns hosting. Our turn will be in June 2027.

Scholarship Award Winner Named

In spring 1998, members of the University Women's Club (UWC), in conjunction with State College Area High School leaders, established the University Women's Club Award.

Recipients were to be graduating high school seniors who planned to enroll at Penn State University. In addition, recipients were to demonstrate positive academic achievement and participation in State High and community activities.

This award is funded by a portion of the dues payment of every member. The recipient receives a prepaid account established at the Penn State Bookstore that she may use for the purchase of books and other instructional materials.

Twenty-five years later, we're thrilled to announce that Emily G. Ishler is the recipient of the 2023 UWC Award! She graduated from State High in June and plans to enroll at Penn State in August to pursue a degree in Kinesiology. As a State High student, Emily was involved in the State High Marching Band, rowing, mini-THON, Little Lion Ambassadors, Key Club and National Honor Society. As a first-year Penn State student, Emily plans to try out for the Blue Band and looks forward to being part of THON.

Plan to attend the UWC Fall Reception. You will have an opportunity to meet and hear from Emily and the Club's endowed scholarship recipients.

Interest Group Descriptions + Sign-Up Procedure

Interest Groups are the heart of the University Women's Club. It is through these special groups that members meet each other, make friends and share interests. So far we have 34 Interest Groups that are meeting this year.

On September 7, all members who have paid their 2023-24 dues will be sent an email containing a link to the online Interest Group sign-up form. Members who join or renew after that date, but no later than September 15, will get the sign-up link when their dues payment is received. Interest Group leaders will be sent their lists on September 17.

Women who join the University Women's Club after September 15 will need to contact psuuwcenterestgroups@gmail.com about joining Interest Groups.

In light of the recent use of our leaders' email addresses to solicit money through SPAM, we have removed all leader emails. To reach the leaders of any group, UWC members can use the directory. Non-members can use the following general email address (please include the name of the group you are contacting on the Regarding line): psuuwcenterestgroups@gmail.com

Here is an alphabetical listing of the 2023-24 groups:

AGED TO PERFECTION — Aged to Perfection meets three times a year on Wednesday afternoon from 3:00-5:00 p.m. at member's homes, with a fourth meeting at a local winery. They collect $15 at each meeting to help cover the costs of the wine and appetizers. Everyone is expected to participate as either a host or presenter. Last year they explored the wines of New Zealand, Italy and New York State. There is a $5.00 group fee. Contact Judy Barrile.

AMERICAN MAH JONGG— Learn, gain experience and have fun playing the popular game of American Mah Jongg using the National Mah Jongg League (NMJL) rules. The group meets every Thursday from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in one of our homes or at Wegmans Cafe. Each member must have the current 2023 National Mah Jongg League (NMJL) card to play. New players are asked to attend the first 4 lessons in the fall to learn the basics. These lessons will be offered concurrently with our Thursday play. Contact Cathie Kenny.

ANTIQUES STUDY — This group is for everyone who has, or would like to have, an appreciation for antiques and history. They meet at 1:30 p.m. on the fourth Wednesday of the month, except November when they meet on the third Wednesday. Email reminders are sent to the members 10 days before each meeting with details and last-minute information. In Spring 2024, they will take a day trip to the Star Barn at Snow Gables Estate in Elizabethtown, PA. The group fee is $5.00. Contact Connie DiNunzio, Lydia Fox or Linda Wilson.

AROUND THE WORLD — Women from around the world meet to discuss and learn about one another's cultures through art, food, discussions about customs and traditions, etc. Meetings are typically held in members' homes on the 3rd

Friday of the month from 10 a.m. until noon. So far, women from Argentina, Bulgaria, Germany, India, Japan, Romania, Thailand and the United States form the group. Contact Mariana Degeratu or Nilima Kumar.

BICYCLING — The Bicycling Group meets on Tuesdays to enjoy a safe bicycle ride and an informal lunch with other members of the UWC. Rides are taken on country roads. In April and depending on the weather, rides typically start at noon and range from 12 to 18 miles. Beginning in May, start times are 9 a.m. and routes are typically 20-30 miles with several longer rides in the fall. Expect several group stops during the ride. Plan to spend 2-3 hours biking. Most rides are followed by eating a packed lunch together or visiting a casual restaurant. Rides will be at a moderate, recreational pace set by the leader. New members who sign up in the Fall will participate the following April. There is no fee for the bicycling group. Contact Pat Schulte.

BOOK AND PLAY REVIEW — The Book and Play Review Group meets six times per academic year (on the 4th Monday of the month) at 1:30 p.m. at Schlow Library's Community room. They invite local authors to speak about their book or play; each meeting lasts about 1 hour. There is no need for you to have read the book; just come and listen! There is a wide variety of interesting topics covered by the authors. The dues are $5 per person per year. A program which details upcoming speakers will be available on the website. Group co-organizers are Uma Belegundu, Lida Ouwehand, Mary Atchley and Linda Witmer.

BOOK DISCUSSION — The group meets on the second Wednesday of the month at members' homes at 1:30 p.m. At the May meeting, members suggest titles and vote for the books to be read for the September through April discussion sessions. Membership requirements include the willingness to either host one meeting or report on one book per year. Contact Nancy Weinreb or Sukie Woodruff.

BOOK 'EM LADIES (Formerly All About Books) — Members of this group meet at 1:30 p.m. on the 3rd Wednesday of each month. The meetings, held outdoors as long as the weather cooperates, are moved inside a member's home when the cold sets in. They read both fiction and nonfiction, avoiding anything too depressing or violent. They choose books for 2-3 months at a time. Their discussions always begin with the book but generally expand into issues raised by the author (and other topics of common interest). Contact Jane Stanton or Diane Twomley.

CHINESE MAHJONG —The group welcomes both new and experienced players to join them on the first Tuesday of each month from 1:00 until 3:00 p.m. They play using traditional Taiwanese Chinese rules (as opposed to the National League rules used in the American version of the game) and will gladly explain the rules to new members. The meeting location is in a private home. Contact Kate May.

COOKING WITH FRIENDS — Enjoy a luncheon with your Cooking with Friends members and take home some delicious new recipes! They meet in members' homes, and the volunteer hostess specifies the number she can accommodate; not every member will be able to attend each luncheon. They maintain a waiting list if the group is filled and will contact you when there is an opening. Luncheons are held on the first Friday of each month, from September through June with February not included. Contact Betz Hanley, Pat Williams, Kay Kustanbauter or Joan Grant.

DAY OF DISCOVERY — This group will take you to places you may have heard about but have never visited. There will be four 1-day trips to include the Flight 93 Memorial, Johnstown and the Flood Museum, and Horseshoe Curve. Dues are $2. The location of the fourth trip is to be determined. Contact Kay Kustanbauter.

DINNERS FOR 8 — Join this group for an evening of laughs and conversation on the second Saturday evening of each month! Each member may bring a guest, either husband or friend, should they choose. They gather in groups of eight for dinner, with each two bringing a part of the meal (vegetable, salad or dessert). The hosts prepare the main course. For holidays and special events, they go to restaurants or have picnics as a whole group. Contact Teddy Nicholas or Mary Ellen Beechan.

DOLLHOUSE DELIGHTS — Dollhouse Delights meets the third Tuesday of the month at 10:30 a.m. at rotating member's houses. Owning a dollhouse is not a prerequisite, but all group members will have a chance to showcase their own collections and interests. Members will be invited to view dollhouse collections and miniature shows and learn from both experts and novices who love this hobby. Presentations range from learning about the basics of dollhouse design and restoration to learning about collecting everything miniature and cute. Fee $5.00. Contact Linda Berenson or Adelina Hristova.

FUN WITH FOOD -- Join the fun and food at a monthly lunch at a restaurant! They gather on the second Thursday from October to April (except January). Members will receive an invitation asking for menu selections and the payment for the meal (around $30 which includes at least 2 courses, beverage and tax and tip). The dues are $5 to cover printing and postage. Registered members can pay by check made payable to Fun with Food and sent to Marilyn Gouran. All are welcome to join their culinary adventures!

GAMES NIGHT -- This group meets on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. to play games in a relaxed atmosphere. Check the email that is sent each month for the location, which may vary. Members are invited to bring games, and they play whatever strikes their fancy. They are an eclectic group that enjoys sampling the gaming tastes of all members; come join them! Contact Kathy Rachael.

GARDENING —The Garden Club welcomes anyone with an interest in gardening or gardens! They have several exciting programs planned for the second Tuesday of the month during the year. The programs may include visiting gardens, hosting speakers and taking part in hands-on activities, such as creating arrangements and holiday decorations. There is often an optional lunch prior to programs, a great way to socialize and meet other members. Their fee is $10 to cover expenses. Contact Pat Williams or Betz Hanley.

GLOBAL CRUISE DINING GROUP — Come travel with a UWC interest group called A Global Dining Cruise. All group members actively participate and enjoy dinners hosted by members in each other's homes. The monthly host determines the country/region to feature, does research and shares information and provides a main course entrée. The host also designs a menu with recipes that each group member can prepare/bring/share at the meal. Cultural recipes are explored and the host shares them with group members as they assign themselves to an appetizer, beverage, soup, dessert or salad as appropriate to the cuisine. Contact Ann Mitra.

♪GOTTA SING!♪ NEW— Do you sing in the shower? Do you sing as you vacuum? If so, this is the group for you. They will not try to be a choir. You do not need to have a great voice. They will not even attempt to harmonize. They will sing for the sheer joy of singing. There will be songs from the 40's, 50's, and 60's. They will sing camp songs, love songs, holiday songs.! Join them on the 4th Tuesday of each month, 2:00 – 4:00 p.m., in the Living Room at Foxdale. Contact Doyle Wilkerson with questions.

HIKING — If walking in the woods is one way you like to stay fit, join the Wednesday hikes. Since 1971, this group has been a perennial favorite for those who appreciate natural beauty, which abounds in central Pennsylvania. For newcomers, walking and talking is a great way to meet people. Hikes are rated easy to difficult and range from three to seven miles. A printed schedule with a brief description of hikes and estimated times of return will be posted on the UWC website each fall and spring. No fee. Please contact Kathi Ferrigno if you no longer want to be on the list or if you rarely attend. Contact Kathi Ferrigno and Jennifer Kolln.

KNITTING AND CROCHETING — The Knitting and Crocheting group typically meets on the third Tuesday of each month at 1 p.m. They enjoy knitting, talking about projects they have finished (or are trying to finish) and sharing patterns found on the internet or in old pattern books. Though most meetings are unstructured, they do have the occasional program or field trip. They are thinking about a possible field trip in the fall and/or spring. If you are interested in knitting or crocheting or need a bit of help, do think about joining this group! Contact Nanette Bohren.

LADIES' AFTERNOON WINE TASTING --The Ladies' Afternoon Wine Tasting group meets three times a year to taste new wines and pair them with food that complements the wine. They meet in members' homes and take turns chairing the programs. This enables them to research wines and share findings with the group. All members must participate in presenting a program when their turn comes. This is a fun group that loves socializing with one another. Contact Jeanne Weber.

LION PRIDE —This group exists for members to share fun adventures at our wonderful University. Members take turns planning 5-8 annual Penn State related activities that may include behind-the-scenes and lab tours, visits to exhibits and performances, lunches/dinners and meetings with professors. Some activities may be exclusive to our membership; others consist of getting a group together to attend some of the great offerings on campus. Contact Laurel Zydney or Jane Stanton.

LIT LOVERS — This group explores the world of contemporary literature based on the suggestions of the group. The books include a wide range of topics, including nonfiction, historical fiction and current books. The group meets at a local winery or by Zoom during the winter months. Members take turns facilitating lively discussions about the book selection for the month. The meetings are held on the 2nd Tuesday of the month, 2:30-4:30 p.m. There is an initial group fee of $5.00. Contact Judy Barrile.

LITERARY SUPPER CLUB — This is a monthly book discussion group meeting on the third Wednesday of the month in members' homes at 5:30 p.m. The hostess provides light refreshments. The reading list is eclectic and follows the whims of the group. Books and hostesses are selected in July for a ten-month cycle. In December and August they go somewhere for an activity, such as dinner and a show. Fee: $5. Contact Patricia Garthe.

LUNCHES FOR SIX —The group invites you to enjoy an opportunity to learn more about club members, along with good food and stimulating conversation. Laughter is guaranteed. Each member hosts once a year and invites five guests to come to her home or go to a restaurant. Two hostesses may plan the luncheon together. In order to meet everyone, this group has had two potluck gatherings each year—one is in October. Join them on the first Wednesday of each month, October through May (except January), at noon or 12:30. Contact Lurene Frantz.

MEDITATION —Yoga meditation is the art of focusing your mind and is also part of a well-rounded yoga experience. Learning to meditate involves more than sitting still. The more you're able to quiet your thoughts through yoga meditation, the more you experience a sense of true presence. Being in the moment helps create that beneficial mind-body connection that yoga meditation is known for. Come experience and learn this unique technique. You will learn to transform the mind from negative to positive, from disturbed to peaceful, and from unhappy to happy. The group meets via Zoom at 10 a.m. every Monday. Contact Lalita Patil.

NEEDLECRAFT — This group is for anyone who enjoys creating with a needle and thread. All skill levels are welcome. You can bring your own project or stitch a small project selected by the group. There are no fees, but some projects may require the purchase of threads and fabric. Beginning in September, they meet on the fourth Wednesday of the month at 6:30 p.m. Contact Karen Truitt.

NEW MEMBER GROUP — This group offers an opportunity for women new to the University Women's Club to learn more about and get involved in club activities and groups as well as make new friends along the way. They meet on a varied schedule. The first meeting date and time will be established at the New Member Reception. Contact Lucy Auger or Betty Parks for further information.

QUILTING -- Quilt lovers, come join this enthusiastic group and learn more about traditional and modern quilting. Pick up new techniques and perfect current skills. This group is open to beginners and experienced quilters. Demonstrations of projects, as well as "hands-on" opportunities, will occur at each meeting. Come and be inspired. There will be lots of "show and tell." They meet on the 1st and 3rd Monday at 1:00 p.m at Good Shepherd Catholic Church. Fee: $20.00 Contact Marty Snider or Michele Thomas.

SPEAKING OF ART -- This is an interest group for people who love art —talking about art, learning about art and sharing artistic experiences. General meetings will be held (most often at Foxdale), 1:00-3:00 p.m. on the fourth Thursday of the month. There is a $5 dues fee to cover the costs of refreshments and stipends for guest speakers. Contact Karen Lintner or Jane Stanton.

VINEYARD VOYEURS -- This was a new group formed by request last year. It meets every other month, including summer. Each host determines the week and day (either a Thursday or Friday) and selects the region and wines to be sampled. Other members bring treats to share. Contact Carol Shapiro.

WICKED GOOD READS –This group meets the 2nd Wednesday of the month, September through May, at the Tanglewood Condominium Clubhouse, Circleville Road, 1:00 – 2:30 p.m. A lively and thought-provoking discussion is the hallmark of this book group. Each month a member presents a book for examination and edification. The books may be prize winners, classics or the latest wildly controversial read, but none are immune from the incisive scrutiny of our members. There is a one-time $5 joining fee. Contact Kathy Friedman or Lida Ouwehand.

WINE DIVAS — Wine Divas meet seasonally four times a year for tastings of three wines paired with delicious appetizers. Tastings are usually in October, January, April and July with exact dates based on host and presenter schedules. Each tasting is hosted by one member in her home, and the wines and appetizers are provided by three presenters. Members are asked to host or present yearly or every other year, depending on the number of members in the group. Costs are divided evenly among members, and presenters are reimbursed. Contact Patty Garthe or Betty Parks.

WOMEN WHO WINE (formerly GRAPES ARE US) —Lovers of friendship, stimulating conversation and wine, the members of this group take turns planning monthly meetings; locations and formats of their wine adventures vary. Contact Jane Stanton or Sukie Woodruff.

WRITING YOUR LIFE HISTORY NEW— Have you thought about writing your life history or memoir? Want to get started? Our leader will walk us through the process, offer tips for getting organized and suggest useful tools and resources.

She has a wealth of experience leading others through this process and has also worked on her own history, self-publishing two books! After sign-ups are complete, a suitable day and location will be selected. (Current day options are 2nd Monday afternoon, 1st or 3rd Thursday afternoon or a 2nd, 3rd, or 4th Friday afternoon.) Contact Donna Chandler.

Call to Action UWC Needs You...

to become more involved in the University Woman's Club this year. We know that many people do not have the time required to serve on the board. How can you help in a more time-sensitive way?

- Serve on a planning or advisory committee
- Help at a special event (a few opportunities are listed below)
- Become an interest group leader or co-leader or, if you are an experienced leader, mentor a new leader
- Volunteer to be an Ambassador at the Fall Kickoff (look below for details)
- Be a "print buddy" or a "tech buddy" for a member who lacks computer access or needs technology help

Special event volunteer opportunities:

1. If you have an hour to spare and want to share your enthusiasm for the Club, join the Membership VP and Assistant VP when they hold fireside chats for prospective new members on the following dates and locations (Contact Lucy Auger.)
 - a. August 8 at 10 a.m. at Liberty Hill
 - b. August 15 at 10 a.m. at Foxdale
 - c. August 24 at 10:30 a.m. at The Village at Penn State
2. Do you remember the first time you attended a University Women's Club event? Most of us remember that it can be a bit intimidating for a new person. We need Ambassadors to help make new members feel welcome at the Fall Kickoff on September 5. This is a minimal time commitment that can have a tremendous impact. If you would be willing to help, please contact Jane Stanton.

Planning or advisory committee opportunities:

1. In June 2027, the Penn State University Woman's Club will host the Big 10 Conference. If you would like to be on the planning committee, contact Pat Weaver.

Pre-Pandemic Program Returns: Smiling Faces Needed

A few years before the pandemic caused us to pause holding our kick-off receptions, a kind and wise member noticed a problem at the annual event. New members looked confused and uncomfortable. Her concern led to the introduction of the Ambassador Program. Friendly volunteer members were stationed at the New Member Table to act as buddies for the new members to guide them through the evening. We are reinstating that initiative and we need volunteers to make that happen! If you are willing to greet newcomers, make them feel welcome and introduce them to Interest Group leaders and other longtimers, please contact Jane Stanton to say, "I want to be an Ambassador!"
