1) Listen to the sentences and use the sentence strips to make the sentences. Identify the noun, pronoun, and verb.

We like coffee. The woman is happy. John drives to work. She has money. Children need school. He cleans the car. The teacher gives a quiz.

- 2) Using the sentence strips, listen to the sentences and correct the word order in each

 Take the same questions above and read them in confused order have them re-order them correctly.
- 3) What are they? nouns, pronouns, or verbs? Put the following words into the correct categories dog, they, read, go, people, drive, is, woman, clean, take, I, chair, you, eat, we, like, school, work, he, HACC, she, sleep, Mr. Smith, teach, it, freedom, answer,

Nouns	Pronouns	Verbs

4) Identify subjects and verbs in the following sentences (use sentence strips)

Use the same sentences as in number 1 – now reinforce the idea of "subject" as the person doing the action or the idea the sentence is about. Use the question "Who likes coffee?" "Who is happy?" to help them identify this. Subjects = nouns or pronouns