This photo essay is an ongoing investigation of the business quarter of East Liberty and the surrounding neighborhoods making up Pittsburgh's East End, an area that has gone through several dramatic cultural and economic shifts throughout its 220-year history.

Artist Aaron Regal offers an alternative narrative to the story of East Liberty's recently acclaimed economic and cultural upheaval.

Monday, February 26
12:15pm – 1:15pm
Ostermayer Room, SCC