The BCM Advantage

There are numerous benefits involved in working with the BCM special events security team, ranging from growth and development as a leader to gaining supervisory and management skills. The opportunities presented with both on and off location duties will refine one's leadership and problem-solving abilities. We pride ourselves on being able to adapt and overcome, no matter the circumstances, in order to provide a safe and fun environment for patrons and staff alike. Staff members will also have firsthand experience working in a team oriented environment. Successful employees will also have the advantage of being able to use BCM Security as a reputable security reference for future career endeavors. As a member of the BCM Security staff, employees will be introduced to a wide spectrum of responsibilities, all bettering the individual as a professional and a leader.

"I would highly recommend working with BCM Solutions. They proved to be an extremely well prepared, proficient and well led Security Company, who only added to the overall experience of the race weekend. We received a lot of good feedback post event from our customers on the friendliness and professionalism of the BCM Staff".
